CEREMONIAL ITEMS

1.1 Presentation of a proclamation declaring April 2004 as Earthquake Preparedness Month in San José. (Emergency Services)

Documents Filed: Memorandum from Director of Department of Emergency Services Frances Edwards, dated March 29, 2004, recommending April 2004 as Earthquake Preparedness Month in San José.

Discussion/Action: Vice Mayor Dando invited Dr. Frannie Edwards, Director of Department of Emergency Services, to the podium. Vice Mayor Dando remarked that the City of San José is fortunate to have Dr. Edwards in charge of Emergency Preparedness, and commented that San José has been recognized across the nation as an outstanding example of how cities can become prepared for emergencies. Vice Mayor Dando stated California has experienced major earthquakes in recent years, including the 7.1 magnitude Loma Prieta earthquake on October 17, 1989, and the 6.7 magnitude Northridge earthquake on January 16, 1994, which resulted in injury, loss of life, extensive property damage and community disruption. Vice Mayor Dando, on behalf of Mayor Gonzales, and the City Council, proclaimed April 2004 as Earthquake Preparedness Month in San José, and urged all residents to join San José Prepared to become aware of appropriate safety measures, and take steps to protect themselves, their families, and their neighborhood against the possibility of earthquakes striking within this region. Vice Mayor Dando presented a plaque to Dr. Edwards, and she thanked Vice Mayor Dando, Mayor Gonzales and the City Council, and invited everyone to visit the exhibit of pictures in City Hall depicting the damage caused in San José by the 1906 earthquake.

1.2 Presentation of a commendation to the NAACP, Rick Callender, President, in honor of the 50th Anniversary of "Brown vs. Board of Education," the 1954 landmark case led by Thurgood Marshall who later became the first African-American member of the Supreme Court. (Reed)

Documents Filed: None.

1.2 (Cont'd.)

Discussion/Action: Vice Mayor Dando was joined at the podium by Council Member Reed. Council Member Reed remarked this year is the 50th Anniversary of the Supreme Court's decision in the case of "Brown versus the Board of Education", and invited Jeff Moore, and Rick Callender, President NAACP, to the podium. Council Member Reed stated for over fifty years the NAACP has united people of all nationalities, races, and religious denominations on one premise, "that all men and women are created equal, and all Americans are entitled to equal rights". He declared that as the Nation's oldest civil rights organization, the NAACP has changed the heart of this country. Council Member Reed, on behalf of Mayor Gonzales, Vice Mayor Dando and the City Council, recognized and commended the NAACP of Silicon Valley for its continuing commitment to ensure that all Americans, regardless of race, heritage or creed, enjoy civil rights. Mr. Callender thanked Mayor Gonzales, Vice Mayor Dando, Council Member Reed and the City Council, on behalf of the 3,700 members of the San José, Silicon Valley Branch of the NAACP, for this honor.

1.4 Presentation of a proclamation in honor of "Jeans to Work Day." (Chavez) (Orders of the Day)

Documents Filed: None.

Discussion/Action: Vice Mayor Dando was joined at the podium by Council Members Chavez, Campos, and LeZotte. Council Member Chavez invited Keri McLain, Chief Executive Officer of the Santa Clara Valley YWCA, and Sandy Davis, Rape Crisis Director, to the podium. Council Member Chavez remarked that in 1999 the Italian Supreme Court decided to overturn a rape conviction because the victim was wearing jeans at the time she was assaulted; and the following Wednesday, people around the world demonstrated their solidarity and commitment to ending sexual assault by wearing "Jeans to Work". Council Member Chavez stated Mayor Gonzales, Vice Mayor Dando, and Council Members LeZotte, Campos and Chirco, have joined her to proclaim Wednesday, April 21, 2004 as "Jeans to Work Day" in the City of San José. Council Member Chavez commented that sexual violence contributes to the deterioration of our community's well being, and solutions require all of us to recognize that there is no place for sexual violence in our families, schools, work places and community. Council Member Chavez presented the plaque to Ms. McLain. Ms. McLain, and Ms. Davis thanked Mayor Gonzales, Vice Mayor Dando and the City Council for their support. Ms. Davis urged everyone to take an active part in raising awareness about this important issue and to support those whose lives have been affected by sexual assault. Council Member Chavez mentioned the YWCA has put together a self defense class that is available to the community, and next Tuesday, April 27, 2004 at 12:30 p.m., in partnership with Parks, Recreation and Neighborhood Services, at the Circle of the Palms in the downtown area, there will be a demonstration on some of those techniques. Vice Mayor Dando urged everyone to wear jeans tomorrow in support of Sexual Assault Awareness Month.

Discussion/Action: Vice Mayor Dando remarked this project has been anticipated for a long time, entailing nine community meetings through the process of planning the Community Center Library and Community Center. She mentioned this will be the City of San José's first joint Community Center and Library. She stated there is 65,000 square feet in the building, with 40,000 square feet as the Community Center, 19,000 square feet as the library, and a shared lobby area of 6,000 square feet. Vice Mayor Dando commented she is looking forward to this facility being built, and one interesting aspect to the Community Center is an instructing kitchen for classes. She added there is a gymnasium, a special room for aerobics and dance studio, a children's activity area called "Tiny Town", and a dedicated space for the senior programs. She remarked that the Library would have a special section for teens and children, a quiet area, a family room built around a fireplace, a tech center, café, community program room, and an outdoor courtyard. Vice Mayor Dando expressed her thanks to everyone involved on this project. Council Member Williams expressed his excitement of this visionary project, and moved approval of the Staff recommendation. Council Member Cortese seconded the motion.

Vice Mayor Dando called for public testimony. Mark Trout spoke on the issue. Council Member LeZotte commented in regard to green building, her hope is that this facility is another fine example of how the City of San José uses the Green Building Policies, not only for the Library, but also for the Community Center. She remarked that West Bay Builders, Inc. is the company that built the library in her District, and expressed support for the project. On a call for the question, the motion carried unanimously, and Resolution No. 72066, entitled: "A Resolution of the Council of the City of San José Authorizing the City Manager to Award a Construction Contract for the Almaden Community Center and Branch Library Project to the Apparent Low Bidder, West Bay Builders, Inc., in the Amount of $17,564,000 and Approval of a Contingency in the Amount of $1,757,000, if Certain Conditions Do Not Occur", was adopted. ## CEREMONIAL ITEMS

1.3 Presentation of a proclamation declaring April as National Volunteer Month in San José. (Dando; Mayor) (Rules Committee referral 4/14/04)

Documents Filed: None.

Discussion/Action: Vice Mayor Dando invited Margaret Wagenet, Sandra Freitas, and Manuel Perez from Volunteer San José Program and Adopt-A-Park Program, and Tom Quigley and Chin Song from Volunteer Center of Silicon Valley, to the podium. Vice Mayor Dando remarked giving freely to others is one of the noblest of human enterprises, and 2004 marks the 31st annual celebration of International Volunteer Week to recognize the efforts of dedicated community volunteers. She stated there are 100 million volunteers working in their communities to contribute their time, talents and energy to make a difference in the lives of others. Vice Mayor Dando commented that in the past 5 years more than 20,000 volunteers have joined in San José's fifty volunteer programs helping to wipe out graffiti, making San José the national leader in emergency preparedness, and adopting every one of the 146 neighborhood parks in San José. She remarked that the partnership between the City of San José and the Volunteer Center of Silicon Valley is another example of local government and community organizations working together to offer comprehensive opportunities for residents to become engaged in improving San José. She stated the Volunteer Center of Silicon Valley is Santa Clara County's premier agency for connecting volunteers with community needs and programs to feed the hungry, shelter the homeless, serve the arts and teach children. Vice Mayor Dando, on behalf of Mayor Gonzales and the City Council, proclaimed April as National Volunteer Month in San José, and commended the strong leadership of Tom Quigley and the Volunteer Center of Silicon Valley Board of Directors, and Margaret Wagenet, the 50 successful programs, and the countless volunteers working to improve the quality of life for the residents in our community. Ms. Wagenet and Mr. Quigley thanked Mayor Gonzales, Vice Mayor Dando, and the Council Members for the recognition, and their support.

RECREATION & CULTURAL SERVICES

5.2 Approval to name the new branch library currently being constructed on Tully Road the "Tully-New Saigon Branch Library." CEQA: Not a Project. Council District 7. (Library/Library Commission)

Documents Filed: (1) Memorandum from Mayor Gonzales, and Council Member Gregory, dated April 19, 2004, recommending the library be named the "Tully Community Branch Library, and Council Member Gregory's office to work with the community of District 7 to explore other alternatives to recognize the Vietnamese-American community. (2) Memorandum from Library Director Jane Light, dated March 29, 2004, recommending the new library be named "Tully-New Saigon Branch Library".

Discussion/Action: Vice Mayor called for public testimony. Speaking in opposition of the issue were Chuck Jeffery, Sherry Dees, Oroses Ramirez, Manin Christy, Helen Bliven, McLaughlin Corridor Neighborhood Association, and Gene Saalwaechter, Alum Rock Neighborhood Council. Council Member Gregory thanked everyone who spoke tonight, expressing appreciation for the concern and commitment. He remarked he is proud to represent District 7, particularly tonight because of how this community, in a situation such as this, is remaining united. He remarked the Vietnamese-American community has been very cooperative in this effort by responding to the need to keep the community united, rather than divided; and have agreed to work with his office to look for other alternatives to recognize the value, the presence and the contributions that the Vietnamese-American Community has made to the City of San José. He remarked that the residents within District 7 will have a neighborhood community library dedicated to life long learning, awareness, improvement and the empowerment of the young people, adults, and families. He added the City of San José's libraries are dedicated to fulfilling these noble purposes, the resulting benefits serves everyone in the community regardless of age, sex, religion, ethnic background, and this library will bring everyone together as a strong, united community.

5.2 (Cont'd.)

Council Member Gregory moved approval of the memorandum he coauthored with Mayor Gonzales, dated April 19, 2004, with the following conditions: (1) To amend the recommendation of the Library Commission to name the branch library currently being constructed on Tully Road from the "Tully-New Saigon Branch Library" to the "Tully Community Branch Library"; and (2) through the office of Council Member Gregory, work with District 7 community leaders and leaders from the Vietnamese-American community to explore alternatives to recognize the valuable contributions of the Vietnamese-American community to the City of San José. Council Member Campos seconded the motion.

Vice Mayor Dando commended Council Member Gregory for his strong leadership and sensitivity to the efforts of the many people in this diverse community, and arriving at a good solution. Council Member Reed remarked he has worked with Council Member Gregory on issues dealing with the Vietnamese-American Community, with his personal favorite project being the Vietnamese Cultural Heritage Garden they are collaborating on, and expressed support for the motion. On a call for the question, the motion carried unanimously and the memorandum from Mayor Gonzales and Council Member Gregory, dated April 19, 2004, was approved. Vote: 9-0-2-0.
